Second Thoughts Wedding Songs

You may want to give these songs a second thought when putting together your wedding playlist. Not only are most of them cheesy and grossly overplayed at weddings, some contain lyrics that are completely inappropriate for a wedding.

- Chicken Dance - Our Take: Nothing about a wedding screams “flap your arms and pretend to be a chicken.” Nothing. No one likes this dance, we promise.
- YMCA - The Village People. Our Take: Most people look ridiculous attempting to spell out the letters.
- Shout - Isley Brothers. Our Take: One of the most overplayed songs at a wedding reception. Please be original and leave this off your play list.
- Macarena - Del Rio. Our Take: As a general rule, songs that promote a form of line dancing should be reserved for bad karaoke bars.
- Electric Slide - Our Take: See previous response.
- Celebration - Kool and the Gang. Our Take: Again, grossly overplayed.
- Hot, Hot, Hot - Buster Poindexter. Our Take: So not hot!
- Heart Will Go On - Celine Dion. Our Take: Leave the Titanic song off the playlist unless you want to leave the impression that your marriage is a sinking ship.
- Gold Digger - Kanye West. Our Take: Jaws drop, the dance floor clears, and the first official fight between the bride and groom commences
- D-I-V-O-R-C-E - Tammy Wynette. Our Take: Seriously?
